1. SECTION 'A'

Reading Unseen Passages for Comprehension and Note-making

25 Marks 45 Periods

Two unseen passages with a variety of questions including 6 marks for vocabulary such as word formation and inferring meaning. The total length of both the passages together should be around 350 words.

The Passages could be any of the following two types:

- (a) Factual passages – e.g. instructions, descriptions, reports.
- (b) Discursive passages – involving opinion e.g. argumentative, persuasive.

SUMMARY

Unseen Passage	No. of Words	Testing Areas	Marks Allotted
A1 15 marks	around 200	Short answer type questions to test local, global and inferential comprehension.	12
		Vocabulary	03
A2 10 marks	around 150	Note – making in an appropriate format	07
		Vocabulary	03

One of the passages should have about 200 words carrying 15 marks, the other passage should have about 150 words, carrying 10 marks.

The passage carrying 10 marks should be used for testing note making for 07 marks and testing, vocabulary for 03 marks; vocabulary for 03 marks may be tested in the other passage carrying 15 marks.

Section B

Writing

20 Marks 36 Periods

B-1 A factual description of any event or incident e.g. a report or a process based on verbal input provided (in about 40-50 words) 04 Marks

B-2 Composition based on a visual and/or verbal input (in about 80-100 words). The output may be descriptive or argumentative in nature such as an article for publication in a newspaper or a school magazine, a speech etc.

OR

An essay on day-to-day life topics in about 250 words.

10 Marks

After giving ample practice to students to write original compositions for two or three years the option of 'Essay' may be eliminated.

B-3 Writing letters based on given input. Letter types include (a) business or official letters (for making enquiries, registering complaints, asking for and giving information, placing orders and sending replies; (b) letters to the editors (giving suggestions, opinions on an issue of public interest) or (c) application for a job. (d) personal/informal letters. 06 Marks

3. Section – C

Grammar

10 Marks 18 Periods

Different grammatical structures in meaningful contexts will be tested. Item-types will include gap-filling, sentence – re- ordering, dialogue completion and sentence transformation. The grammar syllabus will include the following areas:

1. Determiners
2. Tenses
3. Active and passive constructions
4. Clauses
5. Modals.

4. Section – D

Textual Questions -

45 Marks 81 Periods

Questions on the prescribed text book will test comprehension at different levels literal, inferential and evaluative based on the following prescribed text books:

- D.1 (a) One out of two extracts based on poetry from the text to test comprehension (40-50 words) 04
- (b) Three out of four short questions from the poetry section to test local and global comprehension of the text. (30-40 words) 09
- D.2 Six short answer type question on the lessons from the prescribed text (30 words) (2 x 6) 12
- D.3 Two (out of tree) long answer type questions based on the text to test global comprehension.
(Expected word limit would be about 50-60 words each) (2 x 5) 10
- D.4 Objective questions based on Text book (1 x 10) 10

Prescribed Books –

1. Text Book – The Spectrum
2. Work Book – The Spectrum

4. TEACHING READING SKILL

✳ किसी भी भाषा का अध्ययन करने के लिए यह आवश्यक है कि छात्र उस भाषा को पढ़कर समझने की क्षमता विकसित करे। तभी उस भाषा का उपयोग साहित्य आदि पढ़ने में कर सकेंगे। पाठ्यक्रम में रीडिंग skill का मुख्य उद्देश्य विद्यार्थियों को English के प्रयोग में ऐसी क्षमता और कुशलता प्रदान करना है जिससे वे एक दिए गए अंश को पढ़कर उसका पूरा अर्थ समझ सकें ताकि वे (आवश्यकता अनुसार) आगे अध्ययन के लिए माध्यम के रूप में English का प्रयोग कर सकें। विद्यार्थियों की Understanding / Comprehension को परखने के लिए Reading सबसे अच्छी तकनीक है।

✳ How to develop/teach Reading skill. - Reading skill acquire करने के लिए विद्यार्थियों को english में Text Book के अलावा अन्य reading material provide किया जाना चाहिए। इसके लिए शिक्षक-बंधु newspaper व magazines, short-stories आदि का collection रखें व समय-समय पर बच्चों को पढ़ने दें। परीक्षा में इस section में अच्छे अंक प्राप्त करने के लिए आवश्यक है कि बच्चे Question words जैसे what, where, when etc. से भलीभाँति परिचित हों। eg: Who....? किसी व्यक्ति के बारे में पूछा गया है।

DIRECTIONS

1. सर्वप्रथम विद्यार्थियों को दिए गए passage को पूरा पढ़ने के लिए निर्देशित करें।
2. इसके बाद वे प्रश्नों को पढ़ें।
3. तत्पश्चात् दिए गए passage में प्रश्नों के उत्तर ढूँढें।
4. इन उत्तरों को यथासंभव अपनी भाषा में लिखने का प्रयास करें।
5. जिस tense में प्रश्न पूछा गया हो उसी tense में उत्तर लिखा जाना चाहिए।
6. विद्यार्थी को यह प्रयास किया जाना चाहिए की एक unseen passage में क्रमानुसार a से e तक प्रश्नों का उत्तर लिखें।
7. यदि passage पढ़ते समय कुछ unfamiliar / अपरिचित शब्द आते हैं तो चिंता न करें। इसका उद्देश्य over all meaning grasp करना है। ऐसे शब्दों का अर्थ context से समझने का प्रयास करें।

TESTING

READING SKILL IN CLASS XI

1. कक्षा XI में section A के अन्तर्गत एक 200 शब्दों का unsee passage पूछा जायेगा। जिसमें 6 लघु-उत्तरीय प्रश्न comprehension test के होंगे व 3 अंक vocabulary test के होंगे।

A1 - 200 शब्दों का - 6 लघु उत्तरीय प्रश्न = 12
unseen passage

3 vocabulary = 03

कुल अंक = 15

2. Section A का दूसरा प्रश्न A-2 Note Making के लिए लगभग 150 शब्दों का passage होगा।

A2 - 150 words का - Note Making = 07
unseen passage vocabulary = 03

कुल = 10

CLASS XI

- A-1. The Eskimos are people living in the Arctic regions of North American and North-Eastern Asia, including Alaska, Canada, Greenland and Siberia. The Eskimos are cheerful and good natured. They speak a complicated language whose origin has not been traced. They are hunters as farming is impossible in the frozen Arctic region where they live. They travel from place to place in search of Caribon(deer), hares and other food. They help each other generously and share the available food. The Eskimos do not have written laws but they follow certain commonly held rules for decent behavior. When a person commits a harmful act, he is driven away from the community. In winter, the Eskimos live in a house called 'Igloo' built of blocks of ice. Some groups live in log cabins protected by earth on the outside. Some other groups use stones covered by earth. During summer they live in tents.

The Eskimos clothes are made from the skin of the animals they catch. The seams are sewn in a way that makes the garment water proof. Their clothing is made up of hooded jacket, trousers, boots and gloves. The Eskimos travel in canoes made of animal skins stretched on a wooden frame. They carry their belongings on the ice in sledges that are built of wood and bone and are pulled by team of dogs.

A. :-

- a) Who are Eskimos? (2)
b) Where do Eskimos live? (2)
c) What do the Eskimos wear? (2)
d) How do they go from one place to another? (2)

- e) What is a 'sledge'? (2)
- f) How is an Eskimo punished for doing a harmful act? (2)
- B. - Find words in the passage which means the same as :-
- a) Difficult to understand. (1)
- b) Of a good enough standard or quality. (1)
- c) A light narrow boat. (1)

ANSWERS

- A.
- a) Eskimos are the people living in the Arctic regions of North America, North-Eastern, Asia, Alaska, Canada, Greenland, Siberia.

- c) They wear jacket, trousers, boots, gloves made from the animal skins.
- d) They travel in canoes made of animal skins stretched on a wooden frame.
- e) A sledge is built of wood and bone, pulled by dogs to carry the belonging on the ice.
- f) When an Eskimo commits a harmful act, he is driven away from his community.
- B) (a) Complicated. (b) decent (c) canoe.

PASSAGE II

2. Read the following passage carefully:

1. Dr. Shanti Swaroop Bhatnagar returned to India in August 1921 after getting his D-Sc. degree in London. He took up the physical chemistry chair at the newly started Banaras Hindu University.
2. When Arcot Ramaswamy Mudaliar convinced Viceroy Linglithgow of the need for a Board of Scientific and industrial Research to mobilize Indian talent to meet the requirements of the Second World War that broke out in 1939, Linglithgow wanted Bhatnagar to be its Director. Very soon several products of great importance had been developed by him and his staff such as gas masks using indigenous components, lubricating oil for bronze bearings in locomotives, air-foam solution, glass substitutes and plastics for Indian wastes.
3. Bhatnagar's vision was establishing a chain of laboratories throughout the length and breadth of the country that would not only become centres of excellence but would also provide gainful employment to thousands of countrymen. As his vision unfolded, the CSIR network started expanding. Before his death twelve of these laboratories were fully functioning. The CSIR network has since extended to 39 laboratories.

4. On a visit to the Himalayan Institute of Mountaineering, Bhatnagar had difficulty in breathing and was advised rest. Not heeding the advice, Bhatnagar carried on till he suffered a heart attack on the night before New Year's Day in 1955 while he was preparing for the Science Congress of Baroda.

A. On the basis of your reading of the passage, answer the following questions:

- a) After returning to India in August 1921, what did Dr. Bhatnagar do? (2 Mark)
- b) Why was the Board of Scientific and Industrial Research needed? (2 Mark)
- c) What was Dr. Bhatnagar then appointed as, and by whom? (2 Mark)
- d) Name two of the products developed by Dr. Bhatnagar and his staff. (2 Mark)

The most amazing fact is that snake venom has been used in medical treatments for thousands of years. In the 12th century, doctors used snake venom to treat leprosy. In ‘ Ayurveda’ use of snake venom has been suggested for the treatment of tuberculosis.

Snake venoms were also considered to be potent biological weapons prior to the 1972 Biological Weapons convention that mandated their destruction.

Although the danger of snake venom to humans has been well documented, today repaid research in this area has resulted in using snake venom for various beneficial purposes. The most obvious benefit to man is the snake venom's role in producing antivenin, which helps to counteract the effects of snakebites. For this, venom is milked from the fangs of snakes and then horses are inoculated with this venom. The horse serum is now collected, which contains antibodies having the property to neutralize that venom. Antivenin is effective if it is timely injected in time into the blood stream of a person bitten by a snake.

- a) How was leprosy treated by the doctors in the 12th century?
- b) What were snake venoms also considered to be, prior to the 1972 convention?
- c) What is the use of antivenin?

The causative organism of rabies is a small bullet shaped RNA virus, which belongs to the Rhabdovirus family. It is one of the oldest disease known to man. The RNA virus is capable of infecting any warm blooded animal. Foxes, dogs, cats and bats are the usual targets. Cattle, horses, deer and other herbivores can become infected with rabies. The usual mode of transmission to man is through the bite of infected animal. The virus multiplies at the bite site for 7-10 days and then enters the nerves. After entering the local nerve endings, the virus reaches the brain. The disease may manifest as fever, malaise, headache, loss of appetite, sore throat, depression or pain at the site of bite. The classical symptom of hydrophobia or fear of water are also seen. The most effective mechanism of protection against rabies is to wash and flush a wound or place of contact with soap and water or even plain water, followed by the applications of ethanol, tincture or aqueous solution of iodine. Anti rabies vaccine should be given as soon as possible according to who recognized standards.

PASSAGE II

If you think magic and the magician is all about supernatural powers then we are sorry to disappoint you because neither has anything to do with such powers. In fact, magic is all about display of skill and defitness with hands which is mastered with practice. Though it is difficult for you to become Harry Potter and learn all about charms and potions at Hogwarts School of Magic under Dumbledore, you can well be PC Sorcar with hundreds of tricks up your sleeve. Yes, magic is an art that can be perfected with practice, patience and passion.

To be a professional at magic you need to learn a few tricks of the trade, aim yourself with a few magic props and a big portion of patience. Humour could add to your appeal as a magician. You can always add glamour to the hobby by getting yourself a magician's gear.

To get started grab a few books on magic tricks. Choose your favorite tricks and start practicing with them. Practice is perhaps the most important aspect of being a magician. Never venture out with a trick till you have mastered it with enough practice and are comfortable with each movement. The best way to practice it to do it in front of a mirror. Even if some tricks seem pretty easy to perform practice them until the movements are smooth enough to look natural.

Education has been an ever- evolving process that has developed for different trail and error methods. Education in ancient times in India was through a unique system called ‘ Gurukul’ with literally means a teacher’s home. Here students resided together as equals irrespective of their social standing. The guru was much more than a teacher. He was a father a guide and a role model for all the students.

With the coming of Buddhism, the focus of schooling shifted from the home of the teacher to the monastery, of which few developed into universities. One such university was Nalanda University where training was imparted for the study of both Buddhist and Hindu texts, logic grammar and other disciplines.

Later the Mughal and the Foreign invaders like the Dutch, the French, the portages and the English brought with them a vast change in the education system. The expansion of the colonial rule gave rise to two opposite education systems the English and the Indian. This contributed to the gradual decline of the regional education system, of gurukul , monastery and even Vedic methods of learning. The stress under the colonial rulers was upon education in European literature; arts and science.

The National Progressive Schools Conference (NPSC) came into being in the early 70 s as a forum to address issues affecting and regulating the privately managed recognized schools in India. Today NPSC has around 100 member Schools affiliated to the organization. The body deals with not just academics but with all those vital issues which affect our education system so that collective action can be taken. It is considered as a seed farm for the germination of good educational policies and for spearheading moments for educational reforms. It is a forum for principals to come together and discuss issues that affect the schooling process and out education system.

NPSC membership is offered to only those senior secondary schools which provide quality education and have all the basic facilities in their school. A team comprising of member principal visit the NPSC- aspirant school for inspection and the membership is granted to the schools according to the report submitted by this inspecting team. The body provides a platform to educational bodies like the NCERT and CBSE to stay connected to schools. Often these bodies discuss issues related to the curriculum with the NPSC principals before implementing them in their schools.

Various Parts of Letters

A letter consists of the following parts :

1. Sender's Name and Address. It includes the writer's name and address. It is written at the top on the left hand corner of the page. If the address consists of several parts, each part is given a separate line;
2. Date. While writing date, note that the day is written in figures, month in words and year in full figures. The year is preceded by a comma, when the date is written before it. The date should be written follows :

20th May, 2001

or

May 20, 2001

But do not write 20-05-2001

or

20 $\frac{5}{2001}$

3. Receiver's Address/The Inside Address. This is not required in a personal letter. The official letters are not addressed to the individual but to his/her official capacity.
4. Subject (In case of official letters only). Though not required in Personal letters, it is a must in official letters. It must be as brief as possible, maximum three or four words. It must be the pivot for the body of the letter.
5. Salutation. It is the complimentary little greeting to the person to whom the letter is addressed. It is a formal way of beginning a letter. The form of greeting or salutation depends on the relation and degree of intimacy between the writer and the addressee in personal letters. But in official letters 'Sir' or 'Madam' is used mostly.

Note – If the person, who will read the letter, is known to you, you can address him by name : as

Dear Mr.Gupta

The appropriate title Mr., Mrs., or Miss is to be placed before the name.

6. Body of the Letter. This is the main part of the letter. It consists of three parts : an introduction which gives the reason of the letter, the message which includes the main information and a conclusion, which always is expressed politely or gives suggestions about the problems expressed. It should be well arranged and divided suitably into separate paragraphs unless it is very short. Be brief, courteous and to the point. It should be clear and brief because an official/a businessman has no time to attend to unnecessary details.

7. The Subscription (or the complimentary close). The most common forms in business letters are 'Yours truly' and 'Yours faithfully'. In very formal letters, you may use 'Respectfully yours'. If you have used a personal name in the salutation, the subscription should be 'Yours sincerely'. In case of personal letters, the most common form is 'Yours affectionately'.
8. Signature. The formal letters require your full signature. Below the signature, the name of the person and the position are mentioned. In personal letters write the name by which you are known among your relatives and friends.
Note. Do not use any punctuation mark after the signature.
9. Outside Address. The is written on the envelope or the postcard. It should be written neatly, legibly and spaced carefully. If you write the Pin Code, you can be sure of your letter reaching the addressee without delay.

Sir,

Sub: Replacement of Defective T.V.

I am a regular customer of your reputed shop But I regret to inform you that the CQM Color T.V. that I bought from your shop vide cash memo no. 2635 dated 12th March 07 is not functioning properly. Its colours often fade away and it appears as if we are watching a black and white television. The sound system is also not proper. Without touching the control panel or using remote, the volume becomes very high and sometimes very low, sometimes the picture also gets blurred. It seems that there is some manufacturing defect in it.

When I bought this T.V. set, I was given a warranty of two years. It is still in its warranty period. I, therefore, request you to kindly replace the defective T.V. with a fresh piece. I hope you will not compel me to knock the doors of consumer court for redress.

Sir,

Sub: Problems caused due to stray animal.

Through the columns of your esteemed newspaper. I would like to draw the attention of the concerned authorities towards the problem caused due to stray animals in the city. Reports of minor and major mishaps has become a routine in almost every corner.

One can see so many cattle roaming around everyone in markets, streets, squares etc. The cattle block the road and are a cause of accidents. They are becoming traffic hazards. Street dogs are giving a harrowing time to the residents. Large number of dog-bite cases have been reported.

I, therefore request you to kindly publish an article, highlighting the problem so that the Municipal Corporation authorities may take immediate steps to solve it.

Yours faithfully,

Raman.

Ques.:- “ Games and sports should be made compulsory in school” Do you agree? Write an article for publication in School magazine. You are Navin/Nanda, a student of class XI commerce.

VALUE OF SPORTS

BY : Navin

Class XI Commerce

“ All work and no play”

Makes Jack a dull boy.

This old saying itself shows the importance of games and sports in our life. Also we know ‘ Sound mind lives in a sound body’ There can be no better way to maintain a sound mind than games and sports. So, games and sports should be made compulsory in schools.

Games and sports not only help the children to keep good health, they teach them to be disciplined and law-abiding, because these qualities are necessary to play a game. A child learns to be helpful, co-operative, free from prejudices. He develops sportsman spirit and leadership quality. He is able to understand and realize the value of even a micro second. A child develops confidence and concentration while playing games. Thus games and sports can prove very useful in making one a good and useful citizen.

In order to reap all these benefits, games and sports must be made compulsory in schools. The nation needs to be healthy –both in mind and body. Schools can thus prove a good nursery to produce good citizens as well as talented sportspersons in the country.

Ques. Geeta Patil, a student of class XII feels highly disturbed she read about the bride-burning case in the city of Indore, where she lives. She decides to write an article on the evil of the dowry system to the local daily 'Nai Dunia'.

THE EVIL OF THE DOWRY SYSTEM

By : Geeta Patel

Class - XII

The recent bride-burning case in the city of Indore has again proved that the evil of dowry system in our society has assumed alarming proportions. Even after 60 years of independence and so much development, we still are so backward that we are burning the young, talented women just for the sake of money.

The dowry system is a stigma on our society. It is an insult to women. It is a matter of shame for men. The greed for dowry has taken the lives of many innocent girls. They are tortured physically as well as mentally. This evil is spreading day by day in spite of the rules and regulations made by the govt.

We can't end it merely by shouting slogans. Women have to come forward. The parents should educate their girl child also so that she becomes economically self dependent. They should not marry their daughters to the dowry seekers. The girls should also stand up boldly against their greedy in laws. Men should also help the women in removing this dirty stigma. They should neither demand nor accept dowry. This evil can be ended only by exercising strong will power.

SHORT WRITING COMPOSITION (80 words)

Ques. :- Write an article on tackling Malaria by using the ideas given in the chart.

PREVENTION IS BETTER THAN CURE

Malaria can be tackled if certain measures are rigorously followed. First of all it is necessary to maintain cleanliness both inside and outside the house. Mosquitoes breed in water filled area like potholes, coolers etc. one should adequately cover one's arms and legs like wearing full, shirts, pants, etc. Spraying of DDT also helps stop the growth of mosquitoes. Above all using mosquito nets while sleeping and using kerosene oil to destroy malarial larvae are effective steps.

1. Teaching of Clauses

What is a Clause ?

Clause is a part of a sentence which has a subject and a finite verb, e.g.,

This is the place where I was born,

In this sentence there are two clauses. In the first clause 'this' and 'is' are the subject and verb respectively.

In the second clause 'I' and 'was born' are the subject and verb respectively.

In this way, the more finite verbs- the more clauses in a sentence. If there is a single 'finite verb' in a sentence, then it is not a clause and is a simple sentences, e.g.,

He goes to school. (Simple Sentence-No clause)

Note. If there are more than one finite verb in sentence, that is either a Complex or Compound sentence.

Kind of Clauses. Clauses are of three types :

1. The Principle Clause. The Principal Clause is a clause which is complete in itself and express its known as 'the main clause', 'the independent clause' or 'complete clause', e.g.,

I do not know where in lives.

In this sentence 'I do not know' is the Principal clause because it provides clear meaning.

Note.- The Principal Clause never begins with any Conjunction.

2. The Sub-ordinate Clause. The Sub-ordinate clause is a clause which is not complete in itself for expressing its clear meaning. It can not provide its meaning clearly without the help of the Principal Clause So, it is also known as 'the dependent clause' or 'the incomplete clause', e.g.,

I asked her why she came late.

In this sentence, the clause 'why she came late' does not provide its clear meaning that is why it is the subordinate clause.

- 3. The Co-ordinate Clause. This clause is totally independent. It does not take any support from any other clause for making its meaning clear. They are like simple sentence joined by co-ordinate conjunctions. But with it comes the one it becomes the supporter of the same. So, it loses its identity, e.g.,

I shall go and she will come.

In this sentence 'I shall go' and 'She will come', both are independent clauses.

But the first one is Principal Clause and the second one is Co-ordinate clause.

Note.- As the Co-ordinate clause has no more importance due to its identity, we have to understand only 'the Principal Clause' and 'the Sub-ordinate Clause'.

Kinds of Sub-ordinate Clause. The Sub-ordinate clause is divided into three parts:

1. The Noun Clause
2. The Adjective Clause
3. The Adverb Clause

1. The Noun Clause. The Noun clause is a clause which does the work of a noun in the sentence.

2. The Adjective Clause. The Adjective clause is a clause which does the work of an adjective in the sentence.

3. The Adverb clause. The Adverb clause is a clause which does the work of an adverb in the sentence.

The Noun Clause

Recognition. Ask the question 'what' to the main verb, the answer is always the noun clause, e.g.,

He told me that he was feeling unwell.

Question : He told me.....what?

Answer : That he was feeling unwell. (Noun Clause)

The Noun Clause generally begins with the connectives-who, whose, whom, when, where, which, what, why, how, that, if and whether.

The Adjective Clause

Recognition.

1. The Adjective Clause generally begins with relative pronouns-who, whose, whom, that, which, as, as well as relative adverbs-when, where, why and how.
2. The adjective Clause always qualifies the Principal Clause, e.g.,
 1. He is the boy who had made a noise.
 - (a) He is the boy.....Principal Clause.
 - (b) Who had made a noise.....Sub. Adjective Clause.

Qualifying the noun 'boy', e.g.,

2. You know the time when he is coming.
3. This is the place where I was born.
4. This is the boy whose father has been appointed Collector.
5. God helps those who help themselves.

The Adverb Clause

Recognition. The Adverb Clause is used to modify verb, adjective or adverb given in any other clause. It expresses the following things :

1. Time. Adverb Clause of time indicates time and generally starts with the Subordinating conjunctions-when, whenever, till, until, before, after, since, while, as, as long as, so long as, etc. Example:

2. He will follow you whither you go.
3. Where there is a will, there is a way.

4. He makes friends wherever he goes.
 5. I go where I like.
- 3. Purpose. Adverb clause of Purpose indicates purpose. It generally starts with the sub-ordinating conjunctions-that, so that, in order that, lest etc., e.g.,
1. We eat so that we may live.
 - (a) We eat.....Principal Clause.
 - (b) So that we may live.....Sub. Adverb Clause showing 'purpose'.
 2. Walk carefully lest you should fall.
 3. Work hard so that you may pass.
 4. Run fast lest you should miss the train.
 5. Be active lest you should miss the chance.
- 4. Reason. Adverb clause of Reason shows reason. It generally starts with the sub-ordinating conjunctions since, because, for, as, that, etc. Example:
1. He cannot understand it because he is dull.
 - (a) He cannot understand it.....Principal Clause.
 - (b) Because he is dull.....Sub. Adverb Clause showing 'reason'.
 2. I am glad that you have passed.
 3. Since you are my friend, I must help you.
 4. I am sad that you have failed.
 5. She is happy that Gita has topped the class.
- 5. Manner. Adverb clause of Manner shows manner. It generally starts with the sub-ordinating conjunctions-as, as...so, as if, as though, according as, etc. Example:
1. As you sow, So shall you reap.
 - (a) So shall you reap.....Principal Clause
 - (b) As you sow.....Sub. Adverb Clause showing 'manner'.
 2. He spoke as if he had gone mad.
 3. I did as I was told.
 4. Try to finish it as I have shown you.
 5. Plants breathe as animals do.
- 6. Condition. Adverb clause of Condition shows condition. It generally starts with the sub-ordinating conjunctions-if, unless, provided, in case, whether....or, etc. Example:

1. If you work hard, you will pass.
 - (a) You will pass.....Principal Clause.
 - (b) If you work hard.....Sub. Adverb Clause showing ‘condition’.
2. I shall let you go provided you speak the truth.
3. Were I in your position, I would resign.

7. Result. Adverb clause of Result shows result of a thing. It generally starts with ‘that’ but so or such is used before in the principal clause, e.g.

1. He is so poor that he cannot pay his fee.
 - (a) He is so poor.....Principal Clause.
 - (b) That he cannot pay his fee.....Sub. Adverb Clause showing ‘result’.
2. I am so tired that I cannot walk further.
3. It was so cold that many died.

8. Comparison. Adverb clause of Comparison shows comparison between two objects or things. It generally starts with the Sub-ordinating conjunctions-than, as etc. Example :

1. She is not so intelligent as you think.
 - (a) She is not so intelligent.....Principal Clause.
 - (b) As you think.....Sub. Adverb Clause showing ‘comparison’.
2. He is not so foolish as you.
3. No one is a better monitor than Mohan.

9. Contrast. Adverb clause of Contrast shows difference between two objects. It generally starts with the sub-ordinating conjunctions-though, although, even if, however, all the same, etc., e.g.,

1. Although it was raining, I went to school.
 - (a) I went to school.....Principal Clause.
 - (b) Although it was raining.....Sub. Adverb Clause showing ‘contrast’.
2. However hard he may work.....Sub. Adverb Clause showing ‘contrast’.
3. Whatever you may say, I shall not believe you.

2. Teaching of Modal Auxiliaries

Modal auxiliaries are verbs used before ordinary verbs to express different meanings such as permission, possibility, ability, necessity, certainty, obligation, etc. Some of the modal auxiliaries are will, would, shall, should, can, could, may, might, must, ought to and need to.

The following tables show the use of various modals.

Permission	May	Formal permission	a request	May I come in?
	Can	Less formal than 'may'	a request	Can I use your book? You can take it.
Possibility	Could	Past tense of 'can', conditional	Permission in the past	She said that I could leave anytime. When we were young, we could play most of the time. If you could ring up, he may agree.
	May	Expresses possibility in affirmative sentences	'may not' show improbability, something unlikely	Wednesday may be a holiday. The shop may not be open. The may be waiting for our response. It may not happen that way.
Possibility	Might	Past conditional	More unlikely than suggested by 'may'	He might not have come. I thought that he might give us a lift. If you ask him, he might agree.
	Can	Expresses general and occasional possibility, used in interrogative	'cannot' show impossibility, used in negative sentences	This strike can lead to more unrest among the workers. I can smell something burning. Can you explain this to me? He cannot be a leader.
	Could	to say you are not sure, past tense of 'can'	it can be an alternative to 'may/might'	There could be a storm. He could still be searching for a suitable house. He couldn't have gone far. He wondered whether it could be rectified.

	Can	Ability to do something, one's capacity	Alternative to 'be able'	I can drive a car. He can do this work alone.
	Could	Ability in the past, conditional	To introduce a request, an alternative to 'would you'.	In her childhood Rina could dance well. Could he convey the message? I could get you a helper, if you want one. Could you please send the message immediately?
Ability	Be able	Ability to do something, ability in the past	Is used after another modal verb such as should, will, must, might	He will be able to complete it in a few days. Were you able to catch the train? When I was young, I was able to paint. Since his dismissal, I haven't been able to contact him. You should be able to complete it in time.

SECTION A

2. Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow:

Malaria has been the scourge of humanity since the earliest times, and there are ominous signs that it is fighting back against modern science. The first great breakthrough in the treatment of malaria was the discovery by Sir Ronald Ross that the disease was transmitted by the female anopheles mosquito. With the connection between malaria and the mosquito clearly established, steps should be taken to fight the disease.

One method was to attack the breeding places of the mosquito. It was known that mosquitoes laid their eggs in water. So in malaria-infested areas, work was started on draining marshes, stagnant pools, and trying to ensure generally that there were no areas of water where mosquitoes could breed. Where areas of still water could not be drained, they were sometimes covered with oil or detergent, which made the unusable by the mosquitoes.

The most obvious and easiest method of prevention is to use wire screens and mosquito netting to prevent people from being bitten.

A more flexible method is to take protective drugs, such as quinine. This drug was at one time very widely used. Recently there have been indications that certain varieties of malaria germs are becoming resistant to the more modern drugs, and quinine is coming into use once more.

3. Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow:

All spiders are carnivorous (feeding mainly on the flesh of other animals). Spiders eat insects including other spiders. Scientists often divide spiders into two types: web spiders and ground spiders. Web spiders produce webs to capture prey, while ground spiders hunt prey directly without using a web. Almost all spiders use poison glands to kill or paralyze their prey or to defend themselves.

Contrary to popular belief, most spider bites are not dangerous to humans. Of the 40,000 species of spiders, only about 30 species produce bites that may cause illness. Spiders rarely attack humans unless they feel threatened, and if they do bite, the wound is rarely serious. There is absolutely no reason to kill any spider or to call an exterminator if you have spiders in your house. As an old English saying goes, "If you want to live and thrive, let a spider run alive!"
