(3) "On Being Awarded Arrived At the Age of Twenty Three" is a poet's reflection of his late maturity. He has approached the age of twenty three years. He takes it as a loss of his life. He feels that it has approached in such a manner that he had failed to notice it. The prime of his life is lost. He couldn't mind his career. He couldn't perfect himself. He couldn't achieve the height of poetic talent. He feels being cheated by the time for taking away his ripening period without notice. He is not at all happy but one thing gives him relief that it was the will of god.

The author calls the play a "Social Comedy". but it is comic only on the satirical portraits of the characters in the society and law courts. There is a bogus Liberal, M.P. of British Parliament, who uses his power, position and contacts to protect his good-for-nothing son. His son is a spoilt spoilt, a drunkard, a debauch and also a thief. He associates with prostitutes. He in his drunken state snatches a the purse of a lady. When he returned home he took help of Zonen to get in to onto his own house. As he had nothing to give him, he offered him whisky and allowed him to take whatever he want. Zonen then took the silver box and the silk purse.

In this play Galsworthy threw light on the institution of law i.e. courts which are known for its fairness. But the ground reality is that the principle of equality is only a paper tiger, a legal fiction and it

SCIENCE And HUMAN HAPPINESS

Science has been a wonderful phenomenon and a tremendous concept for mankind. Revolutionary changes have been brought in our life which could not be possible in the absence of science. It is the science which has helped man to conquer the forces of nature. It is the science which produce and develop Human Civilization. It has been an important factor to save the history of man. Science is nothing but a systematic way of knowledge and live living. Man's qualities of curiosities, alertness and changes in the natural happening has given birth to science and scientific studies.

There are reasons to consider Science to be a blessing. It has made man superior to all the living creatures. Science has established faster modes of communication and improved means of transport. Today we can take lunch in India and dinner in London. Science

Subject → Regarding misuse of loudspeakers.

Sir,

I would like to inform you that nowadays loudspeakers are causing immense trouble in my area. They are continuously violating the rules by playing loudspeakers even after 10 p.m. The excessive noise of speakers is a hurdle in my studies. My exams are approaching but the noise is disturbing my concentration. I request you to take strict measure against it as soon as possible.

I expect a fast relief from you.

Thanking You!

Yours faithfully
