An Election Scene

Elections play an important role in a democratic country like India. Democracy is the government of the people, for the people and to the people. Last Saturday, I went to a school of my village named 'Govt. High School Vivar' to cast my vote. When I went there I saw a long queue of voters. There was two queue - one of women and second of men. They were waiting for their chance. Inside the polling booth, there was a couple of polling officer in one side and a presiding officer in one side and a some polling agents on other side. One polling officer marked the name of person and asked for his ID proof. The second polling officer put indelible ink on the index finger of left hand of voter. Then presiding officer called in the voter's box and explained him how to cast his vote. Then voter get into the voter's box and pressed the button of his choice in Electronic Voting machine (EVM) and looked into Voter Verifiable paper audit trail (VVPAT). After casting vote he came out of polling booth with a smile in his face. He was happy because he used his 'Right to Vote' other voters followed him. I also casted to my vote. In this way elections were conducted successfully.

Sir,
With due respect, I beg to say that I live in 53 Vikas Nagar, Dewas. I would like to draw your attention to the fact that Postman 'Mr. Ravi Kumar Sharma' is postman of our area. He is very careless of his duty. He is not punctual. He comes late and he gives our letters 2/3 days late. Sometimes he gives letter and wrong hand. He sends registries back if a person is out of town for 2 days. His behaviour is very rude. I shall be very thankful to you if you look into the matter and take actions against him as soon as possible.

Thanking you.
Yours faithfully
Aditi Pal.

S
E

In the poem 'Beauty' poet says that beauty is everywhere. We can see as well as hear beauty. Beauty can be seen in day and can be heard in night. This beauty is everlasting. In the sunlight the trees, the birds, corn growing and people working or dancing for their harvest appears attractive. Beauty can be heard in night in the form of sighing of wind, falling of rain and chanting of a singer. These things appear beautiful.

According to poet beauty is in man himself. Good deeds and happy thoughts accounts for beauty in man.

It is rightly said

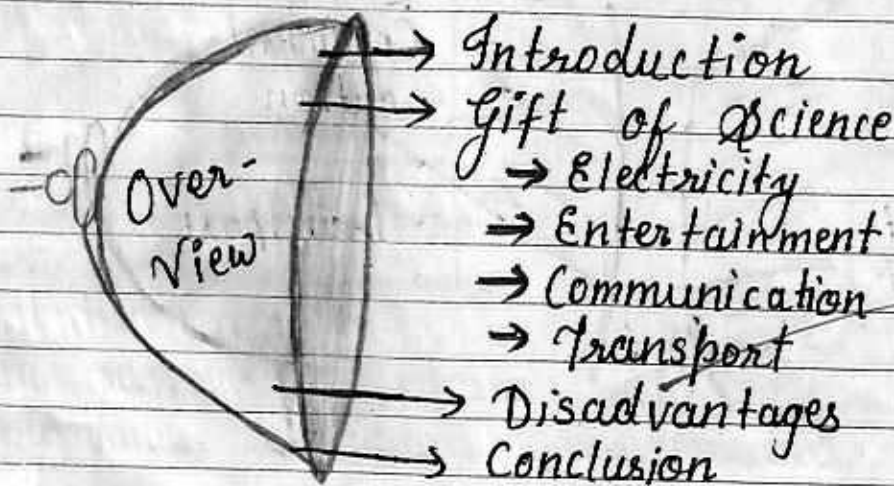

"A joy for beauty is a joy forever"

प्रश्न क्र.

These weapons can snatch a lot many lives.

Conclusion - It is true that science has made our life easy and comfortable with its innovations. Scientific inventions are great gift to humanity but we must be aware of its advantages and disadvantages. Science has given us rifles as well as bullet-proof jackets. It is up to us, how we use them - for the enhancement of humanity or destruction of humanity. We should use them for enhancing our lifestyle and for spreading smile. We should not use them for taking tears in eyes.
