:- Pablo Neruda

Central Idea :-B
S
E

In the poem, Pablo Neruda says about the profits of Silence and keeping quiet. Pablo Neruda says that keeping quiet or silence helps us to understand ourselves and introspect. She also asks us to keep silent because it refreshes us to do our work in a better ways. She also tells us that the earth looks silent from outside but it is vibrant and alive deep within. She tells that keeping quiet would be around the seashore so that the fishermen would give or stop harassing the whales and the men gathering salt would
