THE IMPORTANCE OF TREES

TREES ARE THE LUNGS OF FOREST

B
S
E

In the present world we can't imagine our life without trees. Trees are the garland of forest. They provide us many valuable things. Woods are the most gift that trees gave to us. All the furniture in our home are made up of woods. Trees provide us valuable fruits to eat. Trees are helpful in causing rainfall. They prevent natural calamities like flood, drought etc. Trees absorb carbon-dioxide ( $\text{CO}_2$ ) from the atmosphere & give us oxygen ( $\text{O}_2$ ) to breathe.

But due to increasing greed of people, many of us are cutting trees which is creating lots of disbalance in our environment. We should stop cutting trees otherwise our life would come in danger.

Dear Friend,

Salit,

Being fine, I hope for all your goodness. Hope this letter receives you in best of your health and happiness.

Today, I am writing this letter to tell you how I spent my summer vacation. We went to Raipur with my family. We enjoyed a lot there. We also went to Dongargarh which is famous for its temple and aesthetic beauty. Nature is just like a lap of heaven. We missed you a lot. Next time, we both will go together to enjoy our next summer vacation.

Give my regards to your parents & love to your younger brother.

Thanking you

Your true friend.

Sunil

A THING OF BEAUTY

Reference :

This poem has been taken from our textbook "Harringo" poetry section. The author of this poem is "John Keats".

Summary :

The John Keats explained us that in nature, there are many things of beauty. Every little and big things in nature are all things of beauty like sun, moon, trees, daffodill flowers, river streams, mass of ferns and mask roses. Beside these things there are some things that bring sadness and pain in our live but these things of beauty bring love and happiness instead of unpleasant thing. They remove प्रश्न क्र.

the fall of sadness from our lives and make human being love one another.

John Keats is a sensuous poet. He compares grandeur with mighty dead. The link of man with nature is constant and unbroken. The things of beauty are the wreath of flowery band that keep us attach to the endless beauty of nature.
