The title 'The Silver Box' earlier known as the 'cigarette box', both contained the same meaning as expensive silver box. It is written by the Irish Gaelic writer.

In this drama, whole story reveals around the silver box. Silver box was missing from the house of Mr. Baerthwick. First he accused his servant Mrs. Jones for stealing it. But it was not taken by the charwoman but by his loafer husband, Mr Jones.

silver box finds from the Jones residence by the Snow, a detective who was appointed by Mr. Southwick.
 Mr. Jones had taken the silver box in the state of drunkenness.
 He is presented at the court, not you stealing the box but assaulting the police officer on duty. Later he confessed that it is taken by him. By all this Mrs. Jones is affected who do anything and she does not have any job.
 By the silver box, all story is centered.
 Thus, the title was appropriate because it stated about the class struggle between rich and poor. As
 'silver' is the sign of richness.
 Thus the title is most suited to the drama.
