(Unit - 4) Drama.

Answer of Q.9.

Ans (b) The title given to play 'Silver Box' was appropriate in the context of its theme. It is the central thing in the play. The whole story revolves around it. One day, Jones had stolen silver box from Mr. Barthwick house. Mr. Barthwick filed a detective Snow to investigate the case. He suspects Mrs. Jones to have done it. Snow followed Mrs. Jones to her house and heard up all the conversations between Mr. Jones and Mrs. Jones about the silver box.

प्रश्न क्र.

It reveals that Mrs. Jones is honest and he accused his husband of stealing the same box which she was questioned about. At the same time, Snow entered the room and snatches the silver box on which J.B. is encrypted. He declares to arrest Mrs. Jones. But, Jones confessed that it was he who had taken the box not his wife. Snow did not listen to him and pulled Mrs. Jones out of the door and Jones gave him a blow.

B
