Last Sunday, I went to a hospital to see my friend who was admitted there due to some illness. At the entry gate there was a registration counter. Patients had to register themselves there before being consulted to the doctors. The registration counter was full of patients. After the registration counter there were doctor's rooms in both sides of verandah. O.P.D. patients were waiting for their number to come. Doctor's rooms were followed by the surgical ward. This ward was full of patients. Here the patients had come after surgery. All types of patients after surgery were here inside the ward. Nurses were attending the patients. Some of them were applying medicines and bandaging the wounds. They looked concerned towards the patients. The medicines ward was the last room. Here

The Post Master,
Dewas (M.P.)

B

Subject - An application for complaining against the Postman.

S

Sir,

With due respect, I would like to bring to your kind notice that the Postman Rakesh. His work and behaviour both are unsatisfactory. He is very irregular and careless. So many times he delivers my letters to other and theirs to me. Many important letters are therefore lost. People of the locality are also displeased with his behaviour. I have requested him many times, but it is of no use.

So, I request you to please look into the matter soon. I shall be thankful for you for this favour.

Yours Faithfully
